

JEZ LAYMAN

jezlayman@gmail.com | jezlayman.com | 708-945-9142

Engaging & Educational Programs for Your Library, University, or Staff Training Day

I am an Adult Services Librarian with extensive programming experience, especially with 20-30somethings. Below are some of the programs or training topics I can offer. If you do not see a topic below, but want something similar, please contact me. I often create new programs for libraries to fulfill their unique needs.

CRAFTS

- Beginning Cross-stitch
- Bullet Journaling for Beginners
- Coffee Cozies (sew and non-sew offered in the same class)
- Dry Erase Personalized Organization Board
- Fingerknitting
- Harry Potter Wandmaking
- Mug Decorating
- String Art

JOB HUNTING

- Resume Workshop
- Cover Letters
- Interviews (phone, skype, and/or in-person)

LIFE SKILLS

- Shopping, Saving, & Storing: Making the Most out of Your Food and Funds
 - How to buy the best produce, how to store your food properly, how to lower your grocery bills, where to find help if you need it
- Dress Codes De-Coded
 - What the heck is “festive black tie”?
- How to Do Your Laundry without Ruining Your Wardrobe (ideal for teens)
- You Have Your License, Now What? (ideal for teens)

LIBRARY STAFF TRAINING

- Beyond Booktalking: Whole Library Advisory
- From Budgeting to Blanketforts: Programming for 20-30somethings
- Millennial Marketing: How to Reach Patrons in Their 20s & 30s
- Passive Reader’s Advisory